RELRA Changes Take Effect Next Friday

Changes to the Real Estate Licensing and Registration Act (RELRA) go into effect next Friday, September 4. Hank Lerner, PAR's Director of Member & Legal Services, explains what steps REALTORS® need to take to create a "qualified association" in the second-half of the two-part series on RELRA. Are You Using REALTOR® Correctly?

Everyone knows that if you're not a REALTOR® member you can't use the term, but did you know that there are significant limitations on member use of the terms as well? NAR's Membership Marks Manual has all the rules and regulations about the proper (and improper) use of the term REALTOR® and what it says may surprise you. More...

First-Time Home Buyers in Limbo As Congress Weighs Credit Extension

The tax-credit law requires buyers to close on their purchases - not just be under contract - no later than November 30. This doesn't leave a lot of leeway for people who haven't yet decided on a house and who haven't nailed down mortgage financing. More from the Washington Post...
