U.S. Census Bureau Needs REALTORS®

Pennsylvania REALTORS® looking to supplement their incomes have a chance to make more than $13 an hour verifying addresses and collecting data for the 2010 census. The U.S. Census Bureau is recruiting full- and part-time workers for up to 40 hours per week beginning in 2009. Work is available near the worker's home. To qualify, workers must pass a 28-question basic skills test administered by the bureau. Call 1.866.861.2010 to schedule a test or visit www.census.gov/2010censusjobs.

Code of Ethics Deadline Approaching

Before December 31, 2008, every REALTOR® is required to complete 2.5 hours of Quadrennial Code of Ethics training. If you plan to take the course online and are not registered on REALTOR.org, you should register for the site ahead of time if possible. More...

Support NAR's Housing Stimulus Plan

With Congress considering a return to Washington this month for another economic stimulus effort, NAR has put forth a Four-Point Plan that must be included in any stimulus effort
